this is part seven or eight of a seriesbuy them all before you read this one so it makes the most sense...there are many characters mentioned in this one who appear in prior novels and all are well worth the time and money

"It's more than love"

By sandy

A really moving love story from the Club Destiny series about Tag Murphy and his fiancé McKenna Thorne who are a high profile couple working very long dedicated hours but still find time for each other. Tag is a well known corporate attorney and McKenna owns an online magazine geared towards swingers and the bdsm enthusiasts. McKenna could definitely be described as married to her job. It's been Tag's desire to marry her as soon as possible and after waiting two years takes matters in hand. Lots of fun, including kidnapping, magic mike time, lots of hot sex and a lot of really moving moments. Recommend this read as well as the other books in this series. Well done Nicole again!

Are you looking for a fun summer read at the beach?

By Karen Hulseman

Do you trust me, McKenna?"

Yes, McKenna you should. Because you know Tag is going to make it soooo worth your while. Tag and McKenna find their way to Happy Ever Married in this novella. This couple is one of my favorites from Infatuation (Club Destiny #4). Although I love McKenna's spunky attitude, its Tag that I really enjoy reading. He is definitely an alpha male, but Ms. Edwards writes him in a way you learn his vulnerable side. And she does not disappoint here. Tag wants the perfect getaway and surprise wedding for the love of his life – and he pulls it off with all our Club Destiny friends.

This is a novella that could stand alone if you want as the story lends itself not to make too many references to the original novel that would lose a reader. However, once you get to know them, I dare you not to pick up book #4 to learn how they got here. The novella does tie up some secondary relationships and moves along at a reasonable expected pace.

If you are looking for a fun, fast summer read on vacation, this is a recommendation to fill that spot on your travel itinerary. If you are a Club Destiny fan, you'll want to see what steam Tag and McKenna burn up through the pages.
