Software turn lives into....

By Lenna WB

It's a story wrapped around another story to make one big story that has many connections. One little software in Jakob's computer will cause a lot and I mean a lot of turmoil for him but the catch is Leo made the software. Best friends for years, Leo has had girlfriends but he mostly is in love with Jakob for a while but the feeling isn't quite returned from Jakob. But secrets will come out and feelings that were buried deep will be exposed.

It was a intriguing story, under 300 pages bit it felt long winded to me and it really had one quick M/M scene and the rest was talking, heavy wishing and just inner fighting.
