This book is a nostalgic gem for me. My mom read it to my siblings and myself when we were young and it's always held great memories for me. I had, however, forgotten how dark this book is. I was excited after I received it to read to my 4 year old son. We got to the part about the boy drowning and I thought "wait a minute..." but we pressed on. Then we got to them cutting off the one brothers head and I realized this was just not meant for young kids. I love this book, but maybe not for little ones.

Just as I remembered in first grade. My teacher read this to us and I faintly remember but lovely Amazon has sooo many books to choose from and I remembered what the front cover looked like. Just read this to my second grader and he loves it. He thinks it's pretty funny, which it is. Kind of short but enjoyable.
