A book to treasure...

By Munia Khan

Walter William's The Gambler And The Ghost is certainly an amazing fiction filled with poetic beauty. Through his creativity the author, here, makes the reader feel closer to the characters by allowing great chance to build a bond between the reader and the protagonist. This is a place where the author takes us to a splendid metaphorical world with his artful word-constructions like- '...Wind could get married to the sun in April', '..because fate covered them in dark mistrust...', '...frozen in her own mother's embrace..' and so on. This is a book where life's reality hides behind those glorious chapters. This is a novel to treasure..

Loved the book!

By Amazon Customer

I really enjoyed the dialogue and the settings. The story was a little slow, but really picked up! This was a very enjoyable read!
