GREAT DVD GREAT SELLER

By Janet L. Cameron

This DVD arrived promptly and was in great condition. I recommend this DVD to anyone who is studying counseling at either the graduate or undergraduate level. Corey describes 13 different counseling methods and distinguishes each from the others. We see him apply each method to Stan. Every segment is followed by an analysis of what Corey did in counseling and why he did it. I found this DVD very helpful and I plan to watch it several times. The DVD stands by itself as good educational material. However, after seeing it, I have ordered the textbook as well.

Must have for companion to text

By Book Deva

Gerald Corey's books are great for anyone who is studying counseling and psychology. This DVD that is an adjunct to Corey's Methods book, is a wonderful companion. Having the DVD to watch made a difference for me in my own techniques and my understanding of how to use the analytical approach, Gestalt, and Existential methods. The DVD also gives a good example of using an integrated approach to counseling. I highly recommend this DVD for teachers and students.

Theory in Practice: The Case of Stan DVD for Corey's Theory and...

By Pamela P.

This DVD was valuable in better understanding and visualizing the personal case history and therapy provided to Stan by his counselor. It is one thing to read about it, another to actually see the session at work, even though actors were used.
